

I would like to submit a complaint against Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their local stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary, "Stolen Honor", days before the election. Media outlets are obligated by law to serve the public interest. It is not in the public interest, nor the interest of our democracy, for television stations to air clearly partisan, single-sided programing without also offering contrasting views.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve a real review of programing practices rather than a simple returned postcard. Thank you.
